MEMORANDUM FOR THE CHIEF, CONTACT BRANCH

SUBJECT: Questions for the Subject of Report OO-B-5196-49

In the reference report we find many statements made by subject concerning documentation for the Central Asiatic republics which are directly contradictory to known facts relative to documentation in other parts of the USSR. If subject's description of basic documents used in that area up to 1942 is correct, we can assume that certain aspects of documentation and document controls are peculiar to only the Central Asiatic republics.

In order to help clarify document intelligence on the Central Asiatic republics, we are submitting herewith a list of questions which we would appreciate having used in a further interrogation of the subject.
